

The Hebron Historical Society

July-August 2018

Mark Your Calendar:

Fourth of July - Hear the "Declaration of Independence" read from the steps of Old Town Hall, stay for music, games and food, 11:00 - 2:00, sponsored by The Town Center Project.

The Peters House (ca. 1795), sits at the entrance to Burnt Hill Park. To make it ready for community use, we can use YOUR skills. We need demolition help, painters, carpenters and more. Contact M.A.Foote mafoote@fairpoint.net to sign up, ask questions, or see the house.

Sat., August 25
5th Annual Hebron Day - 10:30 - 3:00, at Burnt Hill Park, Great Family Event filled with games, music, 5K road race, vendors, car show, food, and more.

Note: The painting below hangs in the Capitol Rotunda, and was painted by John Trumbull who was born in neighboring Lebanon, Conn., son of Jonathan & Faith Trumbull. Jonathan was CT Governor both before and during the Revolutionary War. John Trumbull was known as "The Painter of the Revolution".

"Declaration of Independence" by John Trumbull

Summer is for Fun,
Family and Food

Although none of these events have been sponsored by the Hebron
Historical Society,
they all celebrate
HEBRON.

We hope to see you around!!